1953

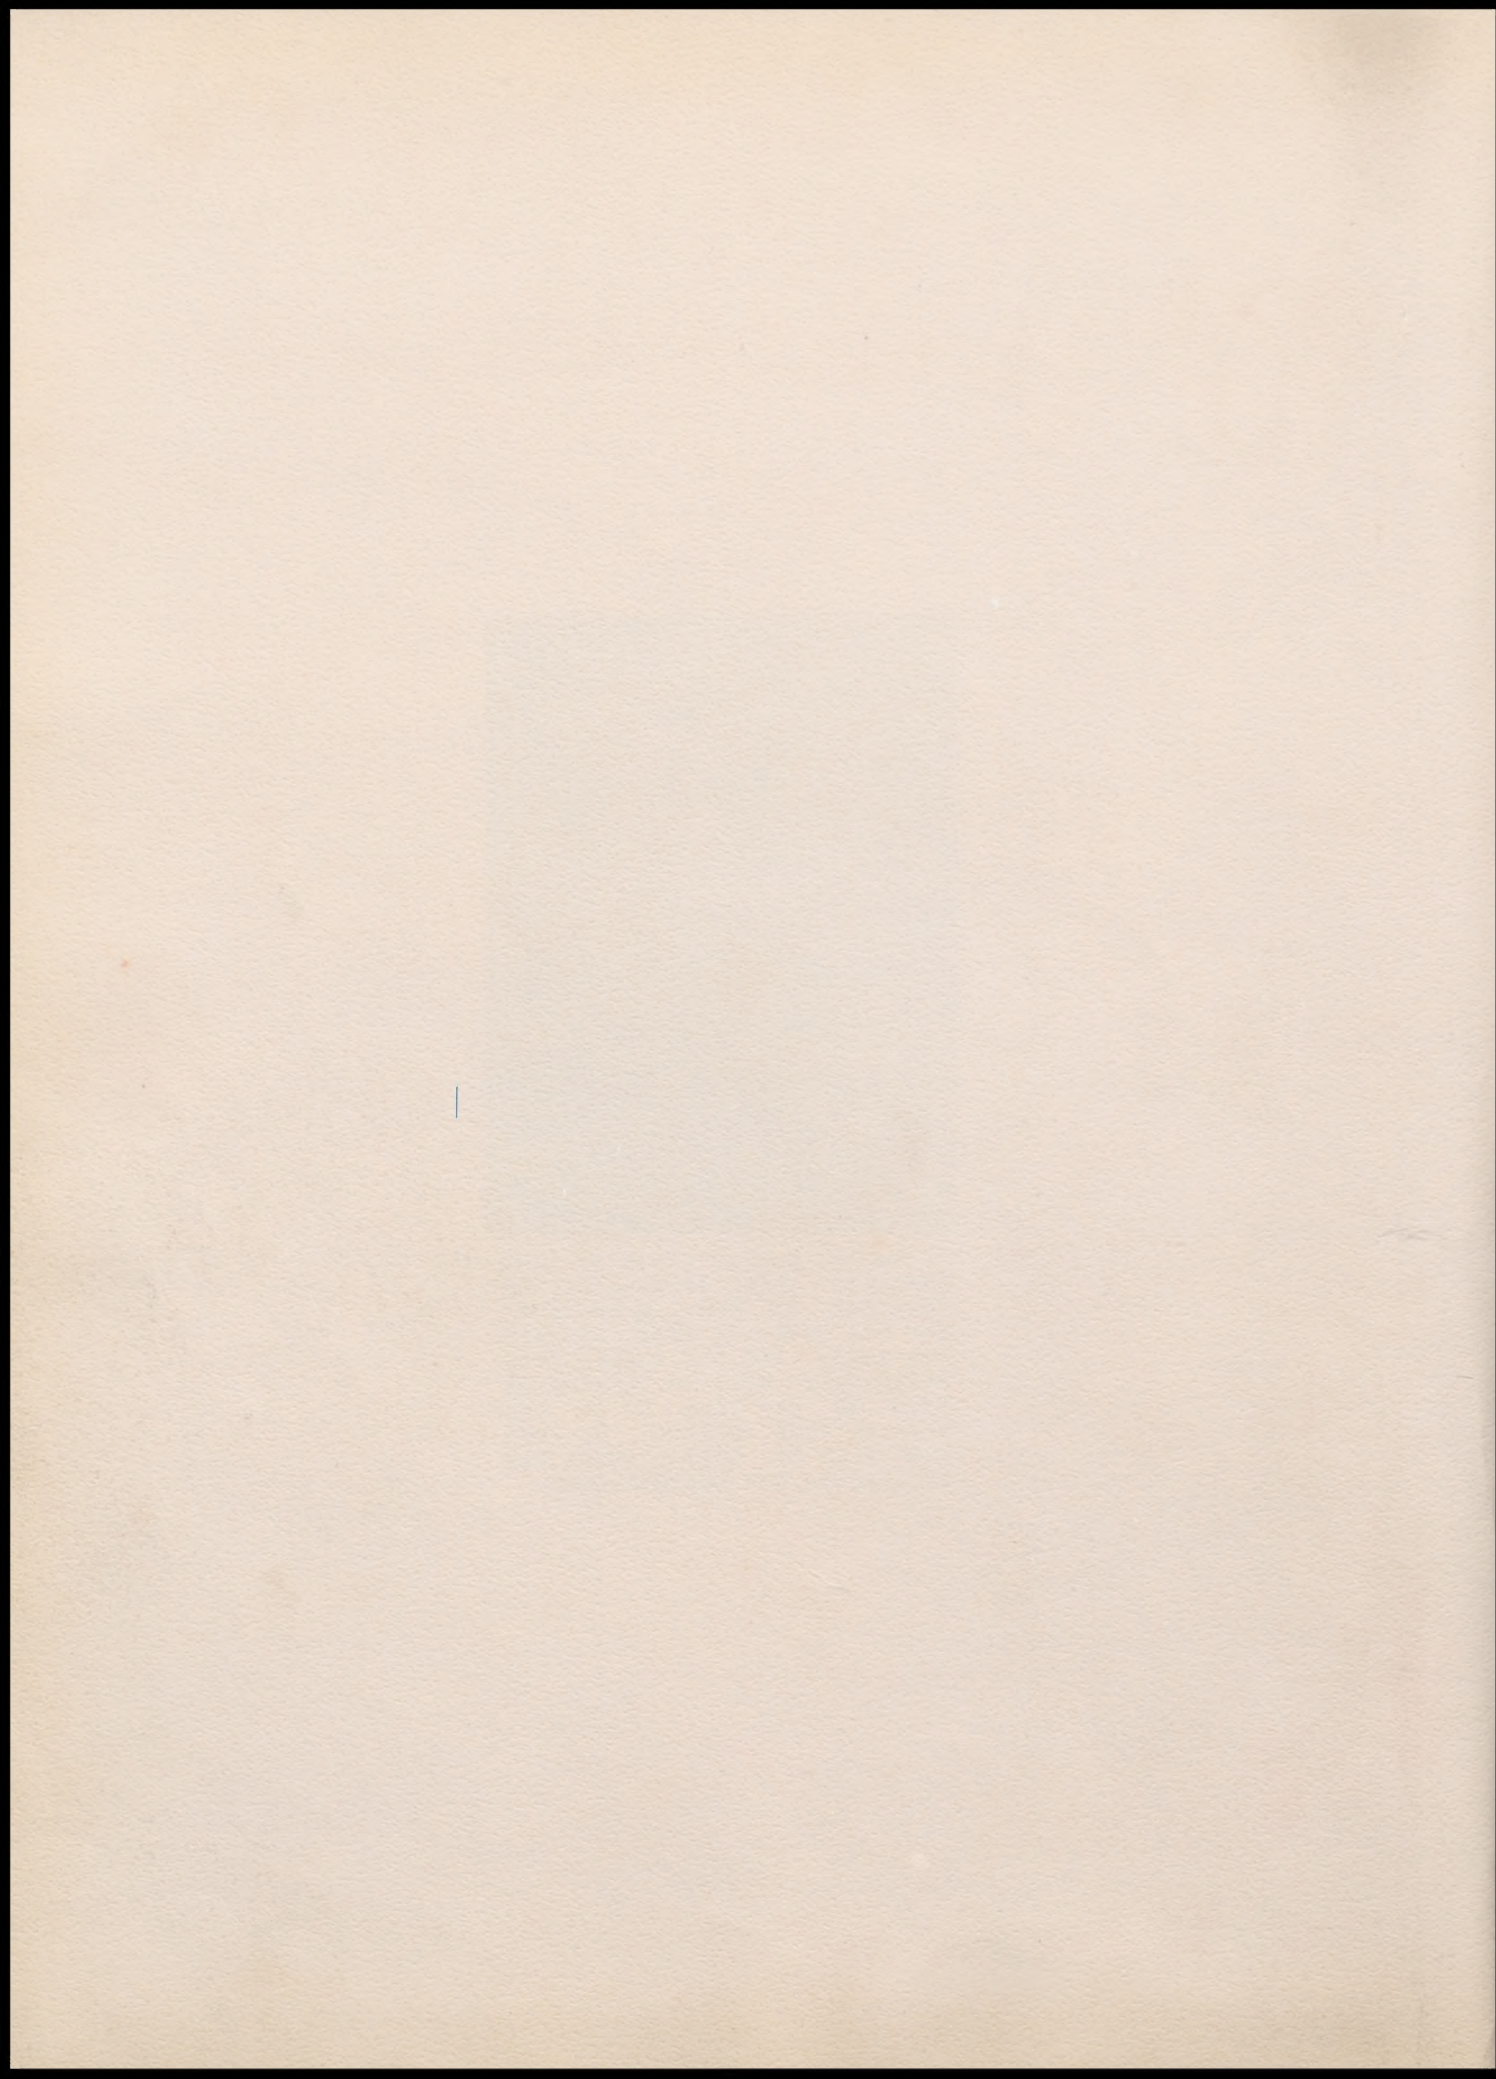

EX LIBRIS

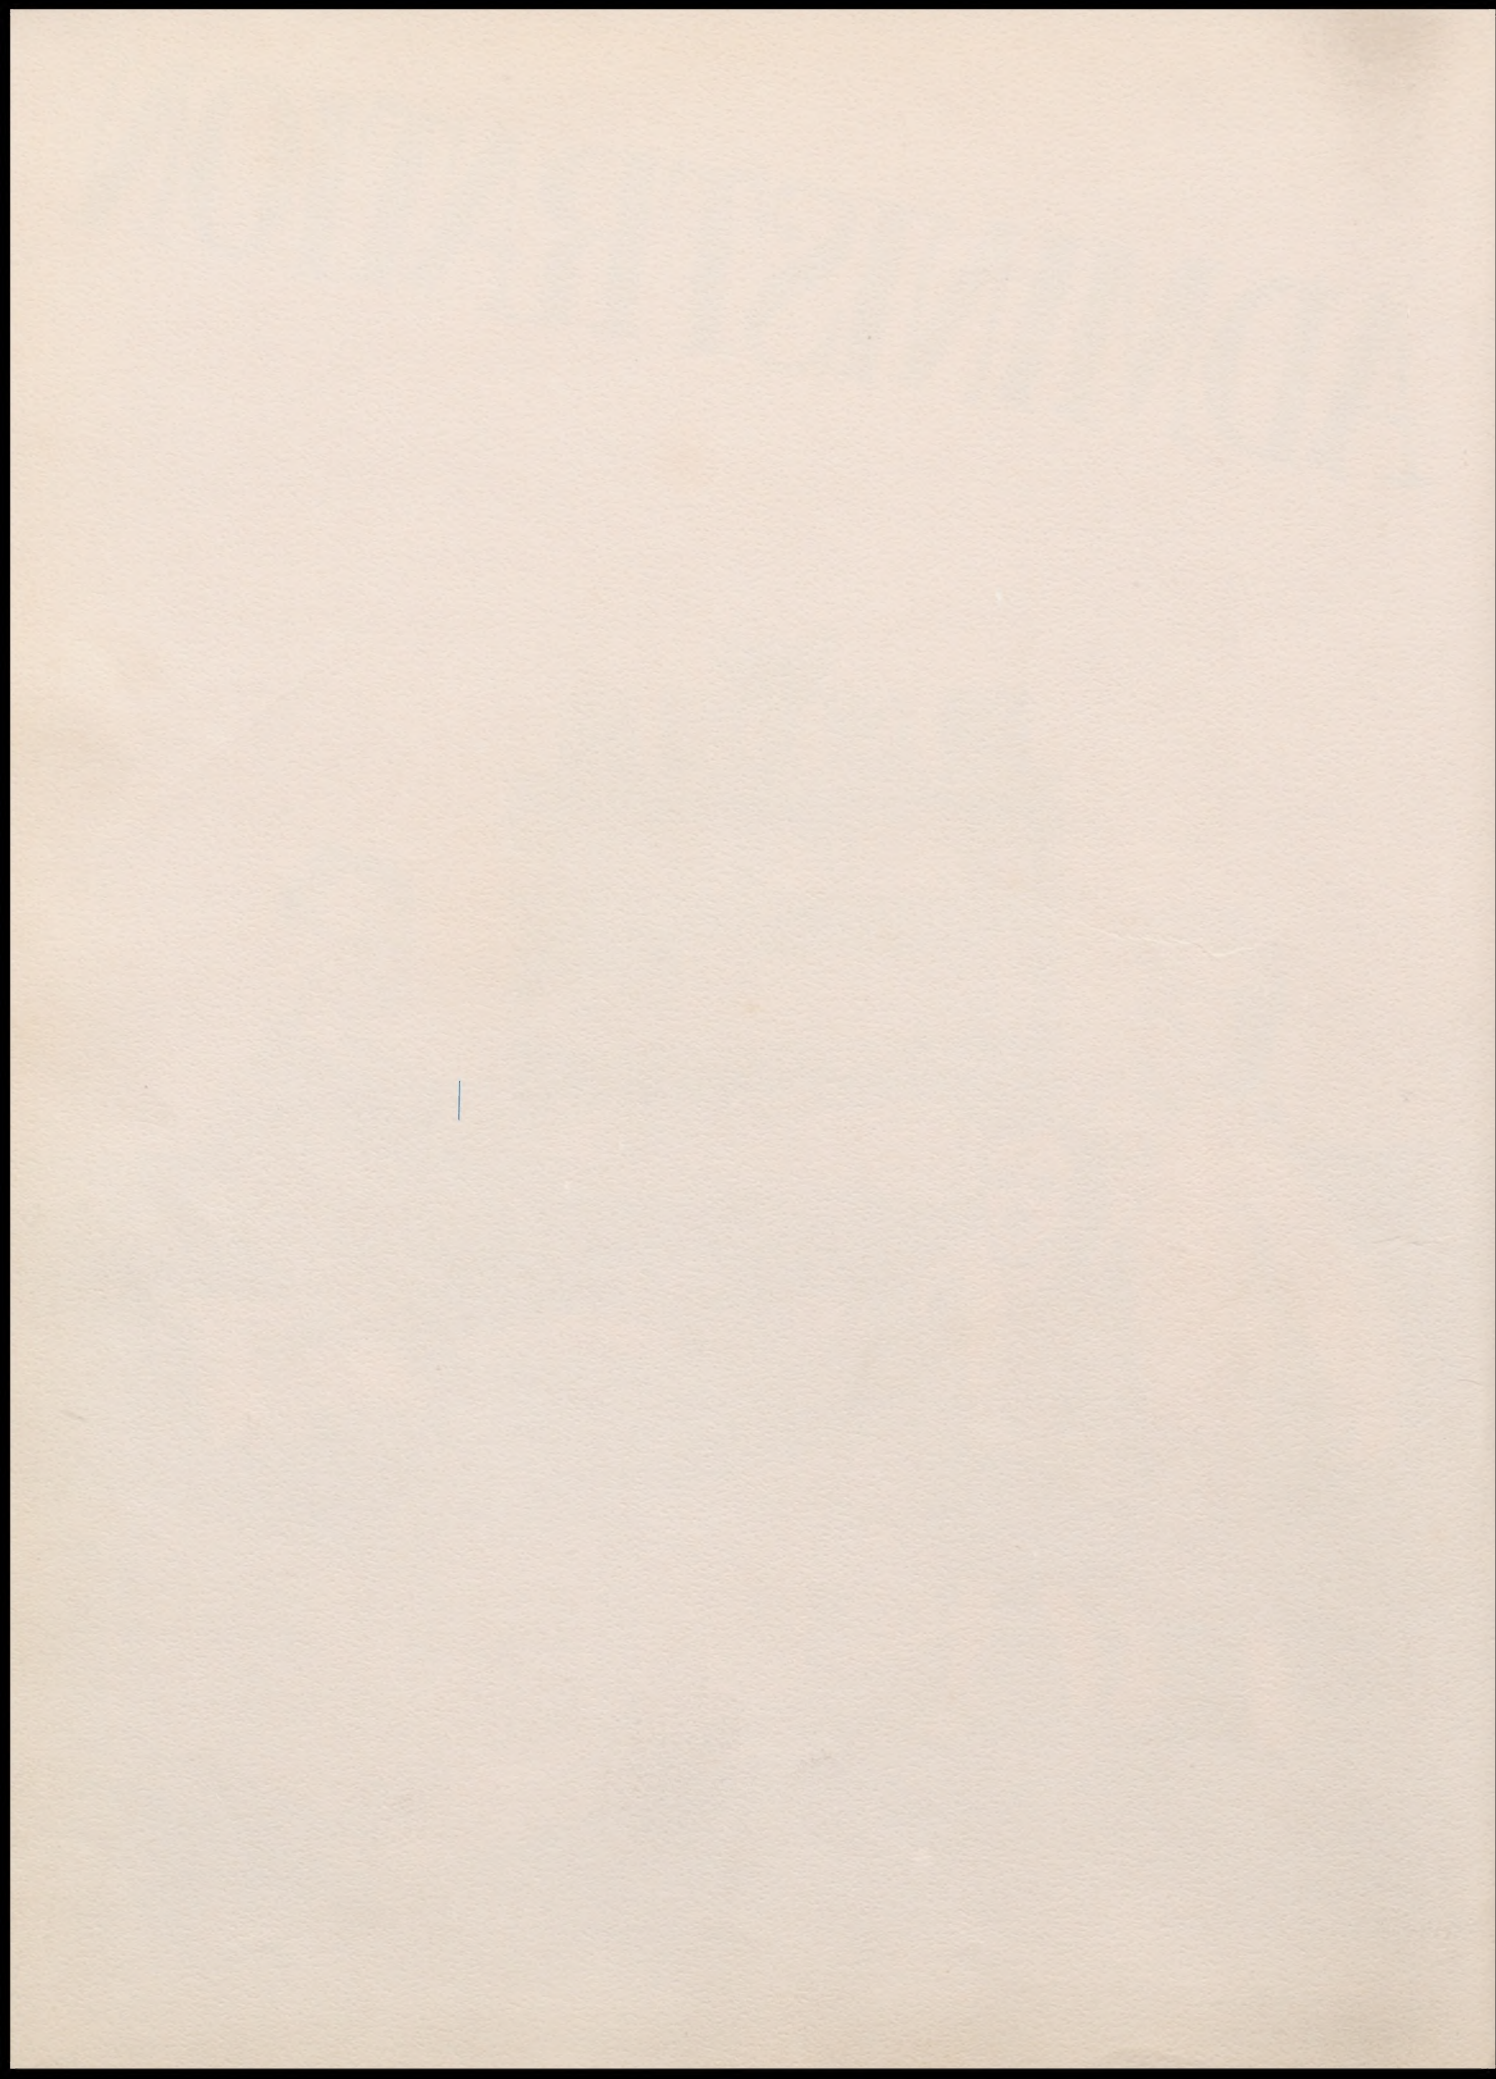

We, the Senior Class of 1953, dedicate this edition of the "K-Echo" to Mrs. Robertson. She has been our class sponsor one year, and has worked very diligently with us, giving up much of her time to do our work on this edition. We feel that this is only a small way to express our appreciation.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Seventeen freshmen enrolled in K. C. H. S. in September, 1949. They were: Eldon Johnson, Eddie Robinson, Duane Glenn, Beverly Meadows, Mary Cutright, Ted Blanchard, Margaret Leming, Andrew Morse, Duane Aughenbaugh, Anna Mae Fort, Darrell Clifton, Myrna Cunningham, Beverly Rich, Charles Scott, Marlyn Miller, Michael Gash, and Gary Rybolt.

We elected the following officers: Eldon as president, Eddie as vice president, Duane Glenn as secretary-treasurer, and Beverly Meadows as reporter. Anna Mae and Duane were our Student Council representatives. The following participated in basketball: Eldon, Andrew, Gary, Darrell, Pete, Duane Aughenbaugh, and Ted. Those who participated in baseball were Eldon, Pete, Darrell, Gary, and Andrew. Several students were interested in music. Band members were Eddie, Duane Glenn, Duane Aughenbaugh, Margaret, Marlyn, and Mike. The girls proved more interested in the Chorus, however, with Andrew the only boy and Anna Mae, Beverly Rich, Beverly Meadows, Marlyn, and Mary Lou the girls.

Those active in F. F. A. were Duane Glenn, Darrell, Duane Aughenbaugh, Eldon, and Andrew. Mrs. Robertson was our class sponsor.

The following September the class had decreased to fourteen; Ted Blanchard moved to Clinton, Margaret Leming moved to Beason, and Andrew withdrew from the Class. Richard Johnson transferred to our class from Downs. We elected the following students to hold the class offices: Eddie as president, Mike as vice president, while Beverly Meadows acted as secretary-treasurer and also reporter. Duane Glenn and Duane Aughenbaugh were chosen to serve on the Student Council.

Pete, Eldon, and Gary went out again for baseball. The basketball team was supported by Pete, Gary, Eldon, Darrell, Duane Aughenbaugh, Eddie, and Duane Glenn. Mike was manager.

The boys proved to be more interested in Chorus this year. Those taking part were Duane Glenn, Duane Aughenbaugh, Eddie, and Mike. Marlyn and Beverly Meadows were the only girls who took part in it. Those participating in band were Mike, Duane Glenn, Duane Aughenbaugh, Beverly Rich, Marlyn, and Eddie, who was president of the band.

Five of the girls were active in F. H. A.; they were: Marlyn, Beverly Meadows, Beverly Rich, Mary, and Myrna. Eldon was elected president of the F. F. A. and Gary, Darrell, and Duane Aughenbaugh were also members. Mrs. Kemp was our class sponsor.

At the beginning of our junior year our enrollment was back up to sixteen. Marie Auvil transferred from Decatur, and Betty Tefft also enrolled in our class. Eddie was elected president, Mary as vice president, Anna Mae as secretary-treasurer, Marie as reporter. Beverly and Marlyn served on the Student Council, with Marlyn as president. Eddie was chosen assistant editor of the "K" Echo and Mike as assistant editor of the "Highlight."

Eldon, Duane Glenn, and Darrell again went out for basketball, and Mike was manager. Eldon and Pete were the only boys on the baseball team out of the class. Beverly and Marlyn were cheerleaders.

This year our class was represented in band by Eddie, Duane Glenn, Duane Aughenbaugh, and Mike. The Chorus members were: Betty, Marlyn, Beverly, Eddie, Duane Glenn, and Duane Aughenbaugh. Eddie won a first place with his tuba solo in the state music contest and Duane Aughenbaugh won an "Excellent" on his trombone solo in the district music contest. Eddie was elected president of band, and Duane was vice-president.

F. H. A. members were Betty, Mary, Myrna, Marlyn, who was vice-president, and Beverly, who was reporter. The F. F. A. was represented by Duane Aughenbaugh, Darrell, and Eldon. Duane and Darrell attended the Kansas City F. F. A. convention.

With the prom and the play the juniors were kept busy. The Prom committee was composed of Petty, Marlyn, Eddie, and Eldon. The dinner and dance were held at the Orlando Hotel in Decatur, on May 10. Bud Hammond's orchestra furnished the music for the dance. The juniors presented the comedy, "One Too Many" on March 28. The play was given under the direction of Mrs. Kemp. Miss Melba Baker was our junior sponsor.

Our enrollment for our senior year had dropped to fourteen. Eldon moved to McLean; Gary joined the Air Force; and Beverly Rich and Anna Mae dropped from the class. At the end of the first semester Betty withdrew from the class and John Gaultney transferred from Clinton bringing the enrollment back up to thirteen. Duane Aughenbaugh headed the class as president, Mike as vice-president, Betty as secretary-treasurer, and Beverly and Myrna were the Student Council representatives. Darrell and Duane Glenn were the only members on the basketball squad. Mike and Eddie were managers again. Pete and Darrell were the only two boys on the baseball team.

The band was represented by Eddie, who was president, and Mike, who acted as vice-president. Marlyn and Beverly were the only two senior girls in the girl's glee club.

Mary was elected to serve as F. H. A. president, and other members were Marlyn, Beverly, and Myrna.

The seniors presented the comedy, "Clemintine," on November 7. Mrs. Bard, our class sponsor, directed the play.

Mary was chosen by the class and faculty as the D. A. R. winner.

Senior Class Prophecy

One day last week as I was working on a customer's motorcycle, I got my wires crossed, received a shock from a battery and was knocked cold. While I was out, my vision wandered into the future of my classmates about 10 years from now and I shall now reveal what I saw.

Duane Aughenbaugh now resides in Hollywood, California, where he is not only famous for his fine acting but also for his mellow baritone voice. As a hobby he collects sports cars and hot rods and now has more cars than Mr. Smith has skunks. He uses these cars to take Margaret O'Brien riding to all the famous Hollywood events.

Mike Cash is now better known as Baron Von Bone-Breaker, the terrifying world's heavyweight wrestling champion, now performing at the Hollywood Arena. He now takes in about $10,000 a night. As Mike has always been a little bit miserly, he now drives around in a 1936 Crosley coupe and resides in a log cabin along Salt Creek.

Sonny Robinson, now married to the former Miss Fern Mayfield, has just discovered he is the great-great-nephew of Henry Ford, III and is heir to a great fortune. He is now in the process of building the Robinson Conservatory of Music. He is the proud Daddy of triplets.

John Gaultney, having survived the rigors of K. C. H. S. after his famous last words, "Well, I made it," is now successor to Professor Albert Einstein of Harvard University. John is now a famous mathematician who has discovered how to float on a concrete boat, eating soup sandwiches. John is now the husband of the striking Marilyn Monroe.

Beverly Meadows has come a long way--she is office manager of Marshall-Field and Company and is also the wife of Gene Kelley. Since her husband is so enthused about dancing, he insists she tap to work each morning.

Myrna Cunningham now residing in Washington has just finished an eight year position as personal secretary to the former President Eisenhower. Myrna hopes to become secretary to President Scott, who just took office three months ago at the White House. Pete won a very hair-raising election and is now working to get the Beer-Party into prominence. President Scott has just passed a law that each high school should have a pin-ball machine in each room, should have coke in the water fountains and should give free cigars to all students. Too bad Scott wasn't president ten years ago.

Marlyn Miller is "Queen of the Cowgirls" and performs for many benefits and owns a rodeo at Moon Shine Mountain, four miles west of Hallsville, Illinois. She performs on her famous horse, "Musty," who is a purebred mustang. We must all go see her some Sunday as the admission is $50.00 a person.

In an Air Force Camp in Texas sits a girl peeling potatoes. And who is she, none other than Marie Auvil. Marie entered the WAF's in August after she graduated from K. C. H. S. As she has always been a failure in everything, she has always been on K. P. and hopes some day to become a private.

Darrell Clifton is now a well-known explorer and hunts quite intelligently for ant hills in the Himalaya Mountains. His salary is now $.30 an hour with no expenses paid. For transportation he uses his Whizzer motor bike and lives nicely in a cave.

Duane Glenn is now chief pilot of the United Airlines. He makes a cross country trip every day across the United States. His salary amounts to about $25 an hour. He likes his work but would rather have a job down to earth. As Duane says, quote, "This life is strictly for the birds," unquote.

We now set our sights to a hospital in France where Miss Mary Cutright is a nurse taking care of insects used in experiments in finding a cure for the common cold. Mary likes her work and is now taking French lessons.

As for me, Dick Johnson, I manufacture my own motorcycles. In the past years I have won so many gold cups that every time I win one I throw it in the closet then mark it up on the chart to keep track of it. "White Lightning" is the name of my famous motorcycle.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of 1953, in the city of Kenney, County of Dewitt, State of Illinois, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby will, publish, and declare the following bequests:

ARTICLE I

We, the Senior Class of 1953, do will and bequeath all the keys to the examination papers to the Freshmen.

We, Eddie Robinson and Michael Gash, do will our positions as managers of the basketball team to Don Aughenbaugh.

ARTICLE II

We, Michael Gash and Eddie Robinson, do will our positions as editors of the "Highlight" and "K" Echo to Janie Abbott and Loah Glenn.

ARTICLE III

I, Duane Aughenbaugh, will and bequeath my ability to play first trombone to Edwin Robb, and my ability to eat seconds at school lunch every day to Sonia Smith.

I, Marie Auvil, will and bequeath my ability to do nothing to Don Hoff, and my ability to yell at basketball games to Sandra Smith.

I, Darrell Clifton, will and bequeath my ability to take rebounds in basketball games to Bill Morse, and my sense of humor to Miss Baker.

I, Myrna Cunningham, will and bequeath my ability to ask questions to Betty Morse, and my ability to butcher the King's English to Mrs. Robertson.

I, Mary Cutright, will and bequeath my quiet and mannerly ways to Mettie Spencer, and my position as chief librarian to my sister Barbara.

I, Mike Gash, will and bequeath my weight to Bill Burns, and my frequent pessimistic attitudes to Judy Monts.

I, John Gaultney, will and bequeath my fast Dodge to Sharon Brady, and my volley ball ability to Raymond Krutz.

I, Duane Glenn, will and bequeath my ability to make the girls chase me to Leonard Alsup, and my ability to fly an airplane to Mrs. Kemp.

I, Dick Johnson, will and bequeath my motorcycle and moustache to Bobby Abbott, and my love for practical jokes to Mr. Smith.

I, Beverly Meadows, will and bequeath my ability to come to school every day to Darlene Koons, and my typing ability to Don Hoff.

I, Marlyn Miller, will and bequeath my ability to have many boy friends to Darlene Irvin, and my long hair to Vivian Shepherd.

I, Eddie Robinson, will and bequeath my ability to find the right girl to my brother, Terry, and my fast Ford to Bobby Clark.

I, Charles Scott, will and bequeath my ability to make the women chase me to John Hunt, and my Plymouth to Betty Sutton.

May these people guard these gifts well and use them wisely.

ACTIVITIES

Senior Class Play-

"CLEMENTINE"

"You're just a low
down sneaking coward
Hank Matthews, and I never want to see
you again, ever."

"Aw, I'd rather wrestle on the gridiron."

SENIOR PLAY

Clementine--a tomboy--Marlyn Miller
Mary Kelley--her mother--Marie Auvil
Gerald Kelley--the mayor, her father--Duane Aughenbaugh
Bertha--the housekeeper--Mary Lou Cutright
Abe Carter--the handyman--Darrell Clifton
Hank Matthews--Clem's pal--Eddie Robinson
Pete--a ladies' man--Charles Scott
Tubby--who has hay fever--Michael Gash
Cathy--who has discovered boys--Myrna Cunningham
Jane Ann--a little gossip--Betty Sutton
Ann McNeill--a speech teacher--Beverly Meadows
Miss Prunella Pringle--Ann's Aunt--Betty Tefft
Mrs. Bard--Director

"CLEMENTINE"

Clementine is a play centered around a tomboyish girl who has her parents as well as the neighborhood in a dither. Clem's mother feels as if she will never grow up. Clem is a star football player of Hooterville High and has all the boys, especially Hank, jealous of her ability to kick a perfect goal. Miss Pringle, a spinster neighbor, is trying to put Clem's father out of office as Mayor because of Clem; but things begin to come to a good end when Clem wins first place in an elocution contest against Hank. She realizes that it was not best to win because she has fallen in love with Hank.

When Clem breaks Miss Pringle's window, Miss Pringle realizes that Mayor Kelley's reforms for better playgrounds would take the children from the vacant lot beside her house. Miss Pringle turns all out in a campaign to support Mayor Kelley.

The play is also livened up a bit by the antics of Bertha and Abe who are always arguing.

JUNIOR PLAY

Letitia (Tish) Bentham--Daughter of the Mayor--Barbara Cutright
Madge Bentham--Tish's mother--Janie Abbott
Aunt "Penny" Bentham--Spinster aunt--Loah Glenn
Audrey Dilley--A campus "beauty"--Sharon Brady
Elsie--The Bentham's maid--Marlene Conn
Mayor Bentham--Tish's father--Bobby Abbott
Lansing (Lance) Bentham--Tish's brother--David Todd
Bert Dilley--Aunt "Penny's" beau--Dean Padgett
Regie Case--Popular man-about-campus--James Schoby
Andrew Bales--Tish's friend--John Brady
John Samuels--a political machine--Don Hoff
Officer O'Hara--Police Chief--Norman Perry
Bennister and Clark--Photographers--John Hunt and Ivan Fort
Mrs. Kemp--Director

"SPRING IS TOMORROW"

The play concerns a much disrupted Bentham household, when Tish becomes Mayor for the day. She has her brother, Lance, arrested while in the company of a campus "beauty", on their first date. Things really begin to roll when Aunt "Penny" finds her wedding is once again postponed, and Tish falls in love with Regie. But it is the Mother Bentham who makes Tish realize her responsibilities and finally restores the good name of her father, her Aunt's beau, and the favor of the University "beauty" upon her brother, Lance. These final happy twists bring down the curtain on an enjoyable play.

BAND AND CHORUS

The K. C. H. S. band and chorus enjoyed a successful year under the leadership of Mr. Don Shane. After a rather late start, the band and chorus responded to Mr. Shane's very able directing and once more the K. C. H. S. band and chorus started another event filled year.

The band and chorus participated in the third annual DeWitt County Music Festival along with Wapella, Clinton, Farmer City, Weldon-Deland, and Waynesville which was held at Farmer City, on February 4. The combined band and chorus put in a day of practice, and in the evening gave a concert including the following numbers:
